

I-1 Come to Bethlehem and see the work of the International Center of Bethlehem and visit places important in the life of Jesus. November 7-16, 2007. Pictured are travelers from the Presbytery of Ohio Valley, on the Palm Sunday Road in Jerusalem.

Mission/Social Justice, as a step in partnering with the work of the International Center of Bethlehem, offer a trip November 7-16, 2007. The cost is $2275., including airfare from Indianapolis, housing at the Guesthouse of the International Center, meals, tips, transfers. Detailed information Jo Lucas, 812-342-4850 or jo_lucas@comcast.net.

In August 2006, the Presbytery of Ohio Valley voted to Partner with the work of the International Center of Bethlehem. This partnership offers all congregations ways to connect with Christians in a distant, important and inspiring place on the earth.

A Sunday School class can become Pen Pals with people in Bethlehem

Contact Niveen Sarras NiveenS@annadwa.org

A prayer group can collect used digital hearing aids to be used at the Audiology Clinic

Send them to: Jo Lucas, 530 Shoreline Dr. Columbus, IN 47201

A study Group can explore the work of the Middle East Council of Churches

PCUSA is a member

A Choir can send $$ to support scholarships for students at Dar Al-Kalima School

Contact Matt Middleton mmiddleton@annadwa.org

A congregations' Peacemaking Offering can be sent to the ICB for Scholars

Send to: Bright Stars of Bethlehem, 212 East Capitol St., NE, Washington, D.C. 20003. Or contact info@brightstarsbethlehem.org

All can travel to Bethlehem in November 2007 and all can learn of the work of the

ICB at www.annadwa.org

Bethlehem Travelers are willing teachers and speakers at congregational or cluster gatherings and events.

Contact David Dietrich d.dietrich@insightbb.com

I-2 People Serving M/SJ are: Lorna Kuyk, June Ramage Rogers, David Brookman, Scott Hill, David Dietrich, Jim Richards, Beth Walden-Fisher, Alejandra Haddad, Eric Erickson, Shane O'Neill, Jane Warren, Frank Hainer. Jo Lucas